Designed for: KJR

Key Partners

- Third-party firm (programmer)
- Cooperation firm of KJR (examples):
 - o kindergarden "Clubmäuse",
 - child leisure facility,
 - "Café Netzwerk",
 - o "103er Freizeittreff Obergiesing"
- Foundation for digital education (help with maintaining the app)

Key Activities

- Website/App Stores for distribution
- Administration/Moderation
- Advertising via KJR Website to use the app to start the participations
- Customer feedback for the future development and to increase the motivation to use the app longterm

Key Resources

- Third-party firm (programmer), for regular updates and new functionalities (from the customer feedback)
- Lawyer (Revision of data privacy and cookies (for the Web-App))
- employees for implementation/administration (laptop and work-phone, workplace)

Value Propositions

- Safe environment for digital communication (with children from 7 to 21 years) with focus on privacy and data security.
- It is a digital platform for connectivity among an established community and customized to the wishes and requirements of the KJR.
- It is easy to use, among other things for children with learning disabilities and convenient to use through the format of an app.

Customer Relationships

regular updates and functionalities)

- Co-creation (feedback → for
- · Contact to the moderator (chat moderation)
- A regular relationship with customers (support / feedback / workshop / events)

Channels

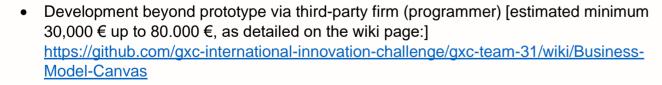

- Website (Web-App)
- Apple Store / Play Store
- General App Store

Customer Segments

- Two versions for two different segments:
 - Normal version (12 21 years)
 - Kids version (7 12 years, children with disabilities)
- Activity providers:
 - Staff at KJR
 - cooperation firms KJR

Cost Structure

• On-going adminstration/moderation (one or two full-time employees – depending on the cost of employment at the KJR)

Revenue Streams

- Internal Use (free / no costs for users)
- financial governmental support
- KJR donation account

